Learning Mentors please use this key to verify your student(s) answers. Your object is to help the student(s) make the connection between faith and life, what they read and how it should apply to their lives, or a deeper meaning for them to hold onto in their faith. It is our hope that you will enjoy this learning journey along with the student(s).

Lesson 25

The student/students will be sharing their personal salvation testimony with you. Be sure to go over it with them, and if there is any confusion or anything unclear, help them understand. And if there is any doubt that they don't have a salvation testimony because maybe they aren't truly saved, but sure to use this time to go over the Gospel with them to make sure and give them an opportunity to solidify their receiving of God's gift of salvation if necessary.

Lesson 26
